AUSTRALIAN INTERNSHIPS

ACCOMMODATION OPTIONS

Finding comfortable accommodation, in a convenient location with the right people is important and may take time. Factors such as budget, length of stay and whether you want to live alone or with others will influence your decision. Research all available housing options before you arrive for your internship so you can establish a realistic expectation and budget for accommodation (including the cost of utilities) and living expenses.

QUESTIONS TO ASK YOURSELF WHEN CHOOSING ACCOMMODATION:

- What is my budget?
- Do I want to live alone? With other travellers? With a family?
- How far do I want to live from my internship location?
- Do I want to prepare my own meals? Or have meals prepared for me?
- How long do you want to commit to?
- Do I want to buy my own furniture?

Australian Internships arranges a variety of accommodation options for different budgets and needs. Our team will help you to find the most suitable option for you!

HOMESTAY

Homestay is a safe and affordable. Typically, you will have your own bedroom and two or three meals with the family per day. Living or boarding in a home with a local family can be a great way to know more about daily Australian life and improve your English skills.

STUDENT RESIDENCE

These facilities offer fully-furnished, self-contained apartments with an opportunity to live alone or share with others in a student community. Living with in a small community of students and interns provides a ready made support and social network that will help you during your stay for the internship.

SYDNEY

AUSTRALIA'S FAMOUS HARBOUR CITY

The city of Sydney is Australia's oldest, largest and most populated city. It is well regarded as a world-class city with a warm, sunny climate. Its strong economy guarantees its spot as the most popular choice for people moving to Australia – not to mention that Sydney is also one of the most highly rated cities in the world in terms of quality of life.

Sydney's multicultural population and attractive natural environment also makes it an ideal place to experience diverse cultural and culinary delights and to get involved in a huge range of outdoor and indoor activities.
